COMMITTEES AVAILABLE TO PARTICIPATE IN:

There are many standing committees in our organization. Listed below are brief descriptions and duties of some Rosarian Committees.

BLESSING OF THE FESTIVAL:

Council - Royal Chaplain, Holly Morgan

This committee is responsible for securing a facility and arranging an appropriate program for the Rosarian Blessing of the Festival and Memorial. This is an annual affair normally held during the month of April.

The Memorial Service recognizes and honors those members and spouses of the Royal Rosarians, Rose Society, Rose Festival Foundation and Blue Back Council of the Navy League who passed away in the preceding year. The Blessing of the Festival seeks a blessing for the forthcoming Portland Rose Festival.

Members of our affiliate organizations, the media and public are invited to attend. The event creates togetherness among the festival groups and is the first time the newly selected Rose Festival princesses are presented to the public.

BUDGET COMMITTEE:

Council/Chair - Chancellor of the Exchequer, Kik Nielsen

The Budget Committee meets each year to review the previous year's budget and make recommendations to the Council for the ensuing year's Operating Budget. The Prime Minister selects members from the Council, Dukes/Duchesses of the Realm, and one member from the General Membership for this committee.

CHEER & OUTREACH:

Council - Royal Chaplain, Holly Morgan Chair - Shirley Deck & Pam Baker

The Cheer and Visitation Committee responds on behalf of the Royal Rosarians when members or their families have suffered a death, sickness, or other family disruption. The committee visits the sick and sends greetings of cheer or condolences as appropriate. It reports its findings to the membership at meetings and in the Tuesday Report or Royal Update. All Rosarians assist the Cheer and Outreach Committee by informing the committee chairperson or the Royal Chaplain when any member is ill or experiences other misfortune.

DRILL MASTERS:

Council - Lord High Steward, Doug Crimin

The Hearts and Roses Auction committee organizes an auction annually to raise funds for funding the many projects that the Foundation sponsors. A large committee is needed to handle the many tasks required to make this event possible.

GOLF:

Council - Master of Ceremonies, David Althaus Chair – Steven Pixley

The Golf committee fosters good fellowship by organizing dates for Rosarian golfers to play together and toward the end of summer organizes a golf tournament. Prizes are awarded and include the annual “Dodo Bird” award presented to the hardest working (most swings) golfer. As you might have guessed, these are strictly “social and fun” tournaments. All Rosarians who play golf, at whatever skill level, are encouraged to sign up.

GRAND FLORAL BALL:

Council - Lord Chief Justice, Patrick Wong Chair – Gene & Sue Horton, Denny & Pam Baker

The committee organizes one of the premiere formal events of the year, the Grand Floral Ball (also sometimes called the VIP Ball). It is held during Hospitality Weekend, the weekend of the Grand Floral Parade, and is attended by Rosarians, visiting royalty and dignitaries, city and military officials, leaders, guests, and members from other festivals.

Leaders of other festivals and their spouses are recognized by the Prime Minister and First Lady and are presented a token gift of appreciation for their participation in the Portland Rose Festival. This presentation may be at the Prime Minister’s reception (by invitation only) prior to the Ball or at the Ball itself.

GRAND FLORAL PARADE:

Council - Minister of Foreign Affairs, Ken Yohe Chair – Connie Shipley

The Grand Floral Parade is the major event of the Rose Festival and requires the assistance and participation of all Rosarians. Some members of the committee arrive at 4:00 am on parade morning at the Coliseum parking lot and line up floats and other units in pre-assigned spaces as they arrive.

Other Rosarians serve as Marshals of floats and bands in the parade. They help maintain units at proper intervals and assist in any emergency that may occur.

Some Rosarians (and/or their spouses) are announcers over public address systems in towers along the parade route, at pre-assigned locations, to provide spectators with information of the passing unit.

The remaining Rosarians march in the parade as a unit with the Council and Dukes/Duchesses of the Realm behind the Prime Minister and First Lady/First Squire, riding in a car.

GRAND FLORAL PARADE FLOAT:

Council - Minister of Foreign Affairs, Ken Yohe

Rosarian members decorate the Royal Rosarian Foundation sponsored float prior to the Grand Floral Parade.

GREETINGS:

Council - Royal Scribe, Vicky Rice

A major purpose of our organization, other than the Rose Festival, is representing the City of Portland. Each year at the Prime Minister's Ball, the Mayor presents a written Proclamation declaring Rosarians as the official "Greeters and Ambassadors of Good Will" for the City.

As the "Ambassadors of Goodwill", Rosarians greet distinguished visitors to Portland at the airport, hotels or other designated places. The individual to be honored is told the purpose of the greeting and presented a framed Rosarian Certificate signed by the Mayor and Prime Minister. The greeters also display a Rosarian banner that reads, "Welcome to the City of Roses".

HONORARY KNIGHTING CEREMONY:

Council - Lord Chief Justice, Patrick Wong Chair – Doug Zimmerman

The Honorary Knighting Ceremony is a major Rosarian event that is often held in the amphitheater at p Park on the Friday morning preceding the Grand Floral Parade. All Rosarians, not assigned other duties that morning, are expected to attend.

The Rose Festival Queen with the assistance of the Royal Rosarians, will bestow "Knighthood" on visiting leaders from other festivals, military and other honorary dignitaries and heads of state.

Following the ceremony, the Queen and this year's court are escorted by the Rosarian Council to their bus where they go to the Queens' Garden Party. This committee is responsible for promoting and organizing the event that includes procedural plans, chairs for dignitaries, program, music, public address system, practice session, and other details. They also arrange for necessary permits for the use of the park and the coordination with park employees.

This committee organizes our Holiday Brunch on a Sunday early in December. This is a social event with donations brought by attending Rosarians and their guests for the Toy and Joy Makers and Sunshine Division. Live music entertainment is provided.

HOSPITALITY:

Council - Lord Chief Justice, Patrick Wong Chair – Royal Chaplain, Holly Morgan

Hospitality is considered a very important Rosarian function due to the extensive planning and “hosting” of several hundred guests from Thursday through Sunday on the weekend of Portland’s Rose Festival. This is the premiere hosting event of the year, and all Royal Rosarians are in the public eye during this event.

Duties of this committee are numerous, and a large committee is required. The committee arranges Hotel accommodations for guests, plans a “Packet of Events” for three days, provides food and dining arrangements, secures and plans bus transportation as needed, packs a “Goodie” bag for attendees and operates a hospitality room with beverages and hors d’oeuvres each day.

The committee also manages the registration, tickets, seating arrangements and accountability of all events.

Most important is the attendance and purchase of a Packet by all Rosarians. Everyone is expected to “host” our out-of-town visitors by making them feel welcomed in attending the Rose Festival. This was the original, and still is, a prime objective of the Royal Rosarians.

HOSTING BY STARLIGHT:

Council - Minister of Foreign Affairs Ken Yohe Chairs - David & Penny Rich

The Hosting by Starlight committee arranges for the Starlight Parade’s pre-parade and post-parade hosting for the marchers of the Out-of-Town participants and fellow Royal Rosarians. This is typically held at the Hotel deLuxe.

JUNIOR PARADE:

Council - Minister of Foreign Affairs, Ken Yohe Chairs – Jan Tolman

The Rose Festival Junior Parade originated in 1918 and is considered the largest children’s parade in the country. It is held in the Hollywood District on the Wednesday afternoon prior to the Grand Floral Parade.

Rosarians serve as Band Marshals and assist the Rose Festival Foundation in coordinating the order of parade floats, bands and other units.

The Rosarian Council, Dukes/Duchesses of the Realm and unassigned Rosarians walk as a unit in the parade, usually with their young children or grandchildren.

The committee will provide dates and places at the beginning of the year and advise members of other details throughout the year.

The Royal Rosarians provide the hands-on volunteering to make the event happen in support of the Rose Festival Foundation. A sponsor, now Alpenrose, pays for the financial costs of putting the event on, and there is an organizing committee responsible for different parts of the event that is meeting monthly to work through the list of tasks needed to make for a great day. The day of the event over 50 Rosarian volunteers are there to help the racers get organized into class of races, track the winners of the races, and give prizes to all the winners.
